Scenario Workshop

SOUTHEAST GUIDING COALITION

ENROLLMENT AND PROGRAM BALANCING

Meeting Objectives

- Provide time for robust dialogue in a process that honors and respects Coalition requests

- Identify Coalition-preferred feeder patterns for Kellogg MS and Harrison Park MS

  A feeder pattern is a component of a scenario.

  - Use RESJ questions to evaluate feeder patterns and scenarios

  - Identify what existing scenarios, if any, follow preferred feeder pattern(s)

  - If no scenarios exist within preferred feeder pattern(s), work in teams to build them out

  - Identify scenario elements for Phase 2 parking lot (i.e. those that do not directly affect program placement within the Kellogg and Harrison Park feeders, like moving Woodstock into Lane MS attendance area)

- As a Coalition, identify preferred scenario concepts for Kellogg MS and Harrison Park MS to narrow options for November 12 proposal selection

Questions We've Heard

- What is a feeder pattern vs. a complete scenario (as we defined it here)?

  - Answer: A feeder pattern defines the attendance areas of neighborhood programs as they flow upward from K-5, to MS, and then to HS. A complete scenario is a configuration that builds upon a feeder pattern by assigning the locations all programs (i.e. dual language immersion).

- Is it a foregone conclusion that Vestal K-5 must move out of the Roseway Heights MS feeder and into the Harrison Park MS feeder?

  - Answer: No, if the Coalition can identify another way to enroll Harrison Park MS.

- Can Sunnyside K-8 be moved to the Grant cluster?

  - Answer: There is not sufficient space in the Grant cluster (particularly in the HS) to expand its attendance area, even if other feeder schools/programs move out of Grant.

Phase 2 Parking Lot

- Some elements of feeder patterns and scenarios have included elements that are ancillary to the Phase 1 objectives

  - Examples include: Woodstock moving from Hosford MS to Lane MS; finding a new location for Creative Science; movement of DLI programs that do not affect enrollment or feeder continuity for Kellogg MS or Harrison Park MS

- Going forward we will capture these concepts as a starting place Phase 2 work in 2021
