Assessment/evaluation/grading policy:

A student's effort grade will be determined by participation, homework, and class work. Proficiency will be based on performance on tests, quizzes, and projects. Major writing assignments will be recorded as test grades.

Behavioral expectations:

ATTENDANCE: It is expected that students will be present in class every day unless a note from a parent or guardian is provided and the absence is excused. Students are responsible for making up all work missed while they are absent in order to receive a grade for that work. Make up work is difficult therefore regular attendance is strongly encouraged. Make up work for excused absences will be accepted for up to three days after the student returns to school. Make up work for unexcused absences will be accepted at my discretion. Even though we are notified of vacations in advance, not all worksheets or photocopies have been made. Students may need to make up work after returning within the three days accepted for the excused absences. Agendas will be posted daily to help avoid missing assignments.

TARDINESS: When students are tardy they miss the instructions and set up for the whole day's work. This is a very important time for the whole class, and I get impatient with interruptions during this time. If you are tardy please come in quietly, and wait to get the information you missed, so as not to disturb the class any more than necessary.

HALL PASSES: Hall passes have been issued with a limit of 10 per semester. They are not to be used within the 10 minute periods at the beginning and end of a class. You are expected to complete such business within 5 minutes. You must have them signed by me if they are to be valid. You take one, write your name, the date, and time on it, and I will sign it. Take it with you on your mission and return it to the hall pass bin when you get back to class. You are also expected to sign out on the sign out sheet. Overuse will be monitored.

RULES: It is my philosophy that every student has the right to a classroom environment that is conducive to learning and free from unnecessary disruptions. It is each student's responsibility to behave in a manner that is respectful of the rights of all members of the class. We will discuss what this should look like together at the beginning of the year but the bottom line is:

- Respect your opportunity to learn.*
- Respect others and their learning.*
- Apply yourself to the reading, writing, speaking and language goals.*
- Treat all people with dignity, kindness and compassion.*
- Consider your own character as possible role model.*
- Realize your importance and place in our community of learners.*

CONSEQUENCES: In the event that a student's absences, tardiness, or behavior become a problem the following interventions will be implemented:

1. individual conference with the student
2. call the student's parent or guardian and/or
3. refer the student to the appropriate administrator or counselor

WRITING ASSIGNMENT HONOR

Work presented for grading, especially writing, must be the student's own original work, and words. If any words are used that the student did not originate, the student must cite all relevant sources documenting what exactly was used from the source by MLA standards. Words presented must be the student's own work whether copyrighted or not.

Academic dishonesty could involve:

- Having a tutor, parent or friend complete part of the assignment (they may help improve skills but not do the work for the student)
- Copying work submitted by another student
- Using information from any source without proper acknowledgement

CONTACT INFORMATION: If you need to contact me my email address is cbirkey@pps.net, and my prep period is 4th period. You can contact me by phone at (503) 916-5640 (between 3:45 and 4:30 school days)—please make appointment.

Safety issues and requirements:

Students must share and return the required PPS Lab Safety Agreement with signature of parent or guardian before they can participate in lab activities. They should adhere to all aspects of safety included in that document.
