Announcing the New Principal of Kellogg Middle School, Thai Nguyen

August 2023

Dear Kellogg Community:

I am pleased to announce that Thai Nguyen will be the new principal of Kellogg Middle School.

Thai most recently served as principal of Machan School in Phoenix, Arizona. Prior to that, he worked as a principal-in-residence of Vista College Preparatory Academy, the Director of Intermediate Learning for Arizona State Preparatory Academy, and as a student achievement teacher at Machan.

His experience also includes serving as lead seminar instructor and coach for The New Teacher Project and three years as a sixth grade teacher of math, reading, writing, social studies, and science.

One of Thai's main areas of expertise is targeted, comprehensive math instruction for English Language Learners, and he has presented papers and research on the subject at the annual conferences of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) and Office of English Language Acquisition Services (OELAS).

A former Kellogg Middle School student and a 2006 graduate of Glencoe High School in Hillsboro, Thai earned his B.S. in organization communication from the University of Portland and his Masters of Education in both elementary education and educational administration and supervision from Arizona State University.

Please join me in congratulating Thai Nguyen on being named principal of Kellogg Middle School.

Cordially,

Dr. Jon Franco,
Chief of Schools
