Oregon Battle of the Books

There will be a virtual parent meeting next Wednesday, December 8 at 7:30pm for those interested in coaching or anyone who just wants more information. The Google Meet link for the meeting will be sent out early next week.

Team sign ups and individual permission forms will be going out next week and will be due back by December 17.

OBOB is a statewide reading program sponsored by the Oregon Association of School Libraries. This will be a fun opportunity for 3rd - 5th graders to read a set list of books, practice with a team of other students, and then compete against other teams from our school about knowledge from the books. One team from Chief Joseph will then compete against other schools in a regional battle next March. Kids should start now in forming teams, finding coaches, and reading books from this year's list! Much more information can be found here. If you have additional questions or want to get involved (I am looking for some additional help in organizing!) feel free to email me. Thanks! Kerry Lear, kerrylear@gmail.com (parent to a 3rd grader and OBOB coordinator for Chief Joseph School)

Library Update

Thank you for your continued support of the Chief Joseph Library! Our Online Book Fair was AMAZING! We sold over $6,000 worth of books which means the Library earned over $1,500 to use towards purchasing new books and materials for the Library! I am in awe of all of your support, thank you!!!
