We are having another mini spirit week the week before spring break!

Wednesday, March 16 - Pajama Day! Dress in your pjs, but remember to wear real shoes for PE & recess.

We want to thank everyone who donated over the holidays to help raise money for our Backpack Program. We were able to collect $6,000 to help our families with extra food and supplies. We are blown away by everyone's generosity!

Library

I am so thankful to our school community! We raised $1600 from the Book Fair in the Fall and I was able to use it to purchase new books for the Library! Here are some of the books that we purchased and students will begin checking them out this week!

Counseling Corner

Hi Families! We wanted to follow up with you and inform you of our attendance policy updates. We are so happy to have your children here and want to make sure they can attend school as much as possible. Regular on-time attendance helps them be a part of the classroom and see their friends regularly. It increases their ability to be part of specialized educational activities like art, music and reading groups. Learning how to read and write by 3rd grade shows it will have a positive impact on these students as they grow up and into adulthood.

Therefore, if your child misses 2 or more days in a month, you will receive a letter from the school informing you of the amount of days your child has missed. This is because by PPS standards chronic attendance is missing two or more days in a month's time. If your child misses more than 4 days in one month, then we will reach out by phone to connect with you and see if there is anything we can do to support you and your child. After 10 days of consecutive absences without a known reason, your child will be unenrolled and a school meeting is needed to figure out barriers to the lack of attendance. If there are barriers to getting your child to school, please reach out to our school social worker, Brandi Cole at 971-610-8467 or brcole@pps.net. Additionally, letting the school secretary know why your child is absent or late is greatly appreciated. Again, please email or call if you have any questions or concerns.
