Mini Spirit Week Before Spring Break -

Wednesday, March 16 - Pajama Day! Dress in your pjs, but remember to wear real shoes for PE & recess.

Thursday, March 17 - Animal Day! Dress up like your favorite animal or wear animal print or bring an animal stuffy.

Friday, March 18 - Beach Day! Celebrate spring break by wearing your summer clothes.

PTO Update

It's going to be a busy month!

TODAY! March 8 is our first spring profit share with Tamale Boy, a long time community partner. A portion of proceeds from both dine in and take out orders at the Dekum Street location are donated to our PTO and benefit our students directly.

Tuesday March 15 6:30 pm at Look Long Brewing, join us for a PTO meeting! Principal Amber and a rep from Portland Backpack Program will be there and we will have an update from our Playground Committee!

March 22 another profit share with Atlas Pizza at the Killingsworth location. Order online or check to see if indoor dining is open!

Library

When a student forgets to bring their library book, they don't go home empty handed...they can choose a book from our Free Little Library!

Please help us refresh our supply of free books for students to choose from. Donations can be dropped off at the Office (clearly labeled Library) during school hours. We could really use picture books, level/early readers, graphic novels, and smaller chapter books. Thank you for helping us continue to support our students!

Thank you, Mrs. Hall

-MESSAGES FROM THE PPS DISTRICT OFFICE-

*During the week of March 7 – 16, staff from TNTP, a national education non-profit, will be visiting some of our ELA and math classrooms to see a typical week of school from the perspective of our students. They'll be focusing on the parts of school we know have the biggest impact on our students' futures:

- o What students experience in the classroom during lessons
- o The kinds of work teachers ask students to complete

TNTP will work to better understand this information in coordination with teachers and principals to ensure it doesn't cause any disruptions. Nothing collected will be used to grade or evaluate our school, teachers, or students. The only goal is to better understand the experiences students are having in our school every day, so that we can make that experience as positive and powerful as it can be. Later this spring, TNTP will share back findings from their site visit which will give us new information to continue to improve the ways we work with you and your students to help them reach the big goals we know they have.

Should you have any questions about this work or how your student is doing, please reach out to our school anytime.
