	What is new?		-Staffing has been frozen district wide; there are internal positions that need to be finalized before we can move forward. -GP has accepted a position at another

			school, there is a new opening for kindergarten position. -There are many uncertainties about what will happen in the coming weeks and after the state reopens. The Governor is expected to release her budget plans on May 20th. The expectation is schools will lose funding and additional educational instruction. -20% furlough of PPS employees is to prevent FTE loss, but it will not be enough.
	Backpack program		Food delivery is done by Lynn Spiers with help of the para educators. It used to be on Friday, but will have to move to Thursday.
	(virtual) ceremony for 5th graders.		-This year's ceremony for 5th graders will be a virtual one. AG and LS are collecting photos and videos made by the fifth graders to compile into a video to share. -Google meeting has a limit of 250 devices. If families use 1 device to log in, additional guests can join. Fifth graders can not tour their new middle school, site council wonders if OG can compose a video, to introduce teachers and school.		Amber and Lynn are contacting parents to ask to upload pictures and a digital hand signature of the student. Amber will reach out to Kristina Howard at OGMS about virtual transition.
	Agenda for next meeting: Revisit bylaws? New site council members				-FdR promised to look into the bylaws for our next meeting -Do we need new members or are we continuing with the current
