

Assistant Principal's Message

Dear Chapman Families,

We are so excited to begin preparations for celebrate Grandparents' and Special Friends' Day on October 31st. Grandparents and special friends are invited to join us for a morning of celebration.

Festivities will begin at 8:15am in the auditorium, followed by our costume parade. After the parade, there will be time for grandparents and special friends to visit classrooms. All will be wrapped up around 10:00am. If your family does not wish to participate in the parade, we are more than happy to provide accommodations.

Some reminders as our costume parade approaches:

- Students' faces must be entirely visible. No masks allowed.
- No weapons (even light sabers).
- No fake blood or gory makeup.
- Please be culturally sensitive when choosing costumes

- Costumes should follow usual school dress codes.

Please keep in mind that students will be walking outside in their costumes, so comfortable, warm clothing and shoes should be part of the costume or able to be worn underneath.

We look forward to seeing you all at this special event.

With gratitude,

Ms. Vawter

Information

Got books?

The sixth annual Children's Book Harvest book drive is coming soon!

We're partnering with The Children's Book Bank to bring you the sixth annual Children's Book Harvest book drive because ALL children, regardless of means, should grow up surrounded by and experiencing books! Bring in your outgrown gently used books appropriate for babies, toddlers, and elementary age children. Gently used books in good condition and even new books are welcome. Drop off your books in the main entrance lobby from October 30 to November 9!
