

1.20.013-P Orientation of New Board Members

- (1) The Board and its staff shall assist each newly-elected member to understand the Board's functions, policies and procedures before they take office. The office of the superintendent shall provide newly-elected Board members with all needed information as to the purpose of the Board , its sources of authority, its responsibilities and duties, district history, including an overview of the current environment, curriculum, budget, major issues confronting the district and the procedures adopted and followed by this Board for the conduct of its meetings and the performance of its duties.
- (2) The newly-elected member shall be invited to attend Board meetings and to meet with the superintendent and other administrative personnel to discuss services they perform for the Board.

Legal Reference: ORS 332.075

History: Adpt 6/71; Rev. (formerly numbered 1.40.060); Amd 9/9/02; BA 2417

