

7.10.022-AD Parent Groups – Dance/Party Sponsorship

Parent organization sponsored student dances may be conducted, dance instruction given and class parties held for students with the approval of the building principal. The conditions under which such activities are approved are:

- (1) If fees are charged, they must not exceed the total cost of paying instructor, music or other event expenses, plus the charge for the use of the building;
- (2) Any surplus acquired is to be used to reduce the cost of operating the activity. Such activities are not to be conducted for profit;
- (3) Dances are not to be conducted for students below 6th, 7th and 8th grades. All students in these grades are to be admitted if they wish to attend;
- (4) All types of dances, dance instruction and class parties approved and supervised by the parent organization, and having the approval of the building principal, may be conducted.
