Announcing the New Principal at Harriet Tubman Middle School, Trevor Greer

August 2022

Dear Harriet Tubman Community:

I am pleased to announce that Trevor Greer will be the new principal at Harriet Tubman Middle School.

Trevor comes to Portland Public Schools from the Parkrose School District, where he excelled as a leader for equity, serving as a high school Assistant Principal and middle and high school Dean of Students. Principal Greer also served as a middle school technology teacher at Parkrose, an educational assistant in special education, and a baseball coach for eight years. Additionally, Trevor was the lead for the ninth grade success team at Parkrose, where the school decreased disproportionate exclusionary discipline and increased the number of ninth graders on track to graduate from high school.

Trevor Greer

A native of Portland, Principal Greer is excited to serve the Harriet Tubman community. He is a visionary leader and is looking forward to working with the staff and community in creating a collective vision of student success.

Principal Greer has a Bachelor of Science degree from Oregon State University and a Master of Arts in Teaching degree from Concordia University. He also received his administrative credentials from Concordia University.

Please join me in welcoming Principal Trevor Greer to the Harriet Tubman community.

Dr. Jon Franco,
Chief of Schools, Office of School Performance
