Announcing the New Interim Principal at Creston Elementary School, Holly Altiero

August 2022

Dear Creston Community,

I am pleased to announce that Dr. Holly Altiero will be the new Interim Principal at Creston Elementary School. Holly comes to Creston from her position as Assistant Principal at the Metropolitan Learning Center (MLC) within PPS. She has taken the lead with safety planning at the K-12 school, as well as organizing and running COVID-19 safety teams and Student Intervention Teams. Holly has also led in-class coaching for teachers in Social Emotional Learning lessons at MLC.

Prior to her work at PPS, Holly has had extensive experience as an Associate Program Director working on graduate level curriculum and administration, as well as six years of teaching at the graduate level focused on school counseling and mental health. Additionally, Holly has spent over twelve years working in the K-12 setting as a progressive school counselor and school counselor advocate.

Holly holds a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Eastern Oregon University, and a master's degree in Education and School Counseling Licensure from Lewis and Clark College. Finally, Holly earned a doctorate of Philosophy in Counselor Education from Oregon State University.

Please join me in welcoming interim Principal, Dr. Altiero to the Creston community.

Dr. Jon Franco,
Chief of Schools, Office of School Performance
