Announcing the New Principal at Markham Elementary, Traniece Brown-Warrens

June 2022

Dear Markham Community:

I am pleased to announce that Traniece Brown-Warrens will be the new principal at Markham Elementary School.

Traniece comes to Markham with an impressive resume that includes a variety of classroom and administrative positions. For the past year, she's been an assistant principal at Jackson Middle School, where she was the head coach of the 7th and 8th grade Guardians football team, in addition to serving as the assistant coach for the Ida B. Wells women's basketball team. At Jackson she created and hosted the JagsWired podcast, and co-created the Black Girl Magic group. Before that, she served as a counselor at Jason Lee Elementary School in NE Portland.

Traniece Brown-Warrens

Traniece began her career in education as a social studies teacher in Houston. She also served as an administrator with a particular interest in teacher training and professional development.

She has a bachelor's degree in psychology from California State University – Sacramento and a master's in education from Liberty University. Currently, she is completing an EdD at Baylor University.

Please join me in welcoming Principal Brown-Warrens to the Markham community.

Dr. Cheryl Proctor,
Deputy Superintendent, Instruction and School Communities
