

Course Syllabus

| Course Overview         NOTE for Teachers: For core classes, all elements of this section (except for name and contact information) are the same across all PS high schools (at times schools may use a modified version of the course title, but the course itself remains the same).         Course Title: English 1-2       Instructor Name: Desiree Wolff-Myren       Contact Info: dwolff@pps.net         Grade Level(s): 9       Instructor Name: Desiree Wolff-Myren       If of credits per semester: 1         Credit Type: (i.e. "science", "elective") Language Arts       # of credits per semester: 1         Prerequisites (if applicable): none       # of credits per semester: 1         General Course Description:       Essential Question:         As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us back to the local and immediate.         Who Am 1?       How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?         How can an individual mature and change through taking action?         The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:         • Self, Family, Culture, and Community       • Identity and Self-Discovery         • Coming-of-Age         Iteraring Expectations         National/State Standards: | Franklin High School  | 2020-2021                     |
|---|---|-------------------------------|
| across all PPS high schools (at times schools may use a modified version of the course title, but the course itself remainsthe same).Course Title: English 1-2Instructor Name: Desiree Wolff-Myren Contact Info: dwolff@pps.netGrade Leve([5]: 9Credit Type: (i.e. "science", "elective") Language Arts # of credits per semester: 1Prerequisites (if applicable): noneGeneral Course Description:Essential Question:As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us backto the local and immediate.Who Am 1?How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:  | Course Overview   |                               |
| Instructor Name: Desiree Wolff-Myren       Contact Info: dwolff@pps.net         Grade Level(s): 9   | across all PPS high schools (at times schools may use a modified version the same). |                               |
| Grade Level(s): 9         Credit Type: (i.e. "science", "elective") Language Arts       # of credits per semester: 1         Prerequisites (if applicable): none       General Course Description:         Essential Question:       Essential Question:         As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us back to the local and immediate.       Who Am 1?         How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?       How can an individual mature and change through taking action?         Themes:       The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:         • Self, Family, Culture, and Community       • Identity and Self-Discovery         • Course Details       Learning Expectations         National/State Standards:       There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.  |   | Contact Info, dwalff@nns, not |
| Credit Type: (i.e. "science", "elective") Language Arts       # of credits per semester: 1         Prerequisites (if applicable): none       General Course Description:         Essential Question:       As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us back to the local and immediate.         Who Am I?       How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?         How can an individual mature and change through taking action?         Themes:         The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:         • Self, Family, Culture, and Community         • Identity and Self-Discovery         • Course Details         Learning Expectations         National/State Standards:         There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.  | •   | Contact mo: dwom@pps.net      |
| Prerequisites (if applicable): noneGeneral Course Description:Essential Question:As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us backto the local and immediate.Who Am I?How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:  |   | # of cradits par samastar: 1  |
| General Course Description:Essential Question:As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us backto the local and immediate.Who Am I?How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:   |   | # of credits per semester. 1  |
| Essential Question:As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us backto the local and immediate.Who Am I?How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:  | Prerequisites (il applicable). none   |                               |
| As we read we will rely on essential questions to help guide our thinking and bring us backto the local and immediate.Who Am I?How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:• Self, Family, Culture, and Community• Identity and Self-Discovery• Coming-of-AgeCourse DetailsLearning ExpectationsNational/State Standards:There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.  | General Course Description:   |                               |
| to the local and immediate.Who Am I?How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:• Self, Family, Culture, and Community• Identity and Self-Discovery• Coming-of-AgeCourse DetailsLearning ExpectationsNational/State Standards:There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   | Essential Question:   |                               |
| How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:• Self, Family, Culture, and Community• Identity and Self-Discovery• Identity and Self-Discovery• Coming-of-AgeCourse DetailsLearning ExpectationsNational/State Standards:There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.  |   |                               |
| How can an individual mature and change through taking action?Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:• Self, Family, Culture, and Community• Identity and Self-Discovery• Coming-of-AgeCourse DetailsLearning ExpectationsNational/State Standards:There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   | Who Am I?   |                               |
| Themes:The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:• Self, Family, Culture, and Community• Identity and Self-Discovery• Coming-of-AgeCourse DetailsLearning ExpectationsNational/State Standards:There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   | How do I establish and maintain a sense of self?                                    |                               |
| The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include: <ul> <li>Self, Family, Culture, and Community</li> <li>Identity and Self-Discovery</li> <li>Coming-of-Age</li> </ul> <li>Course Details <ul> <li>Learning Expectations</li> </ul> </li> <li>National/State Standards: <ul> <li>There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.</li> </ul> </li>   | How can an individual mature and change through taking action?                      |                               |
| <ul> <li>Self, Family, Culture, and Community</li> <li>Identity and Self-Discovery</li> <li>Coming-of-Age</li> </ul> Course Details Learning Expectations National/State Standards: There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   | Themes:   |                               |
| <ul> <li>Identity and Self-Discovery</li> <li>Coming-of-Age</li> <li>Course Details         <ul> <li>Learning Expectations</li> </ul> </li> <li>National/State Standards:</li> <li>There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.</li> </ul>   | The texts that we read will have some common threads. They include:                 |                               |
| Learning Expectations National/State Standards: There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   | Identity and Self-Discovery   |                               |
| Learning Expectations National/State Standards: There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   | Course Details  |                               |
| National/State Standards:There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.  |   |                               |
| There are standards that every students is expected to meet by the end of the year.   |   |                               |
|   | Nationaly State Standards.  |                               |
| The ninth grade standards that we are going to focus on are:Reading   |   |                               |

• RL2: Analyzing Theme

- RI2: Analyzing Central ideas
- R3: Analyzing Character

Language

- L1: Sentence structures and fluency
- L2: Capitalization, Punctuation, Spelling

Writing

- W2: Writing organized, effective expository pieces
- W5: Writing Process
- W3: Writing Narrative

Other

- SL: Discussion
- R1: Citing Evidence

PRIORITY STANDARDS FOR THIS YEAR:

- 9.1 Cite Text Evidence
- 9.2 Informative/Explanatory writing
- 9.3 Narrative Writing

Social Justice Standards:

Identify 3 - I know that all my group identities and the intersection of those identities create unique aspects of who I am and that this is true for other people too.

Justice 12 - I can recognize, describe and distinguish unfairness and injustice at different levels of society

Materials/Texts

Required Reading:

Odyssey (graphic novel and excerpts from the original text)

Marrow Thieves by Cherie Dimaline

and a selection of short stories, articles, and poems

Students will have access to digital versions of all reading material, but if possible I always recommend purchasing your own copy for highlighting and other notetaking needs.

Course Content and Schedule: September: Introductions, Short stories October: The Odyssey & essay November: The Marrow Thieves December: The Marrow Thieves and essay writing January: Personal Narrative

Differentiation/accessibility strategies and supports (TAG, ELL, SpEd, other):

Students will have access to small group learning or one-on-one meetings during Asynchronous time. Students also have the opportunity to meet with the teacher during office hours on Wednesday.

Students can be assigned specific chapters of our class book, this can be less or more than the overall class assignment. There will also be supplemental books and articles that students can explore to enrich their knowledge.

Safety issues and requirements (if applicable): NA

Evidence of Course Completion

Assessment of Progress and Achievement:

4 - Highly Proficient: Student has met and demonstrated total mastery of the standard

3 - Proficient: Student has met standard, although more practice is necessary in order to demonstrate mastery

2 - Almost Proficient: Student has not completely met the standard and some revision and/or re-testing is recommended

1 - Developing Proficiency: Student is missing vital aspects of the standard and should make arrangements to relearn the material

Progress Reports/Report Cards (what a grade means):

Grade Distribution:

- A (100 90%)
- B (89.99 80%)
- C (79.99 70%)
- F (69.99% or lower)

Grading Policy and Notes:

- Re-submission for a better grade is always an option
- Work can be submitted lat, up to a certain point in the quarter (before grades are due)
- Grades will be based on attached standards and summative assessments will include rubrics that aim to make grading transparent and fair

Career Related Learning Experience (CRLEs) and Essential Skills:

We are working on improving reading comprehension, and written expression of ourselves. Essays that meet the standards are eligible to count toward PPS's Essential Skills requirement.

Communication with Parent/Guardian

What methods are used to communicate curriculum, successes, concerns, etc.?

Phone calls, emails, Remind messages, online meetings.

Personal Statement and other needed info

I believe all students can learn, can improve, and can become change makers.