"Mixed grades will have a severe impact on students' academic growth next year for sure. All the teachers in Richmond are VERY dedicated and willing to sacrifice their own time to give the best practice, developed over the past 20 years, to our students. In case we need to adopt 4th and 5th grade mixed grade classes due to the lack of adequate funding to add another teacher to 4th or 5th grade level, we must let something go — it could be Japanese language, Math & Science, English & Social Studies? We want our students to learn as much as possible in their school day. Foundation needs donations from our Richmond families. Please give any amount today." ~ Ando Sensei

Without your support, we will not be able to fund all four 4th and 5th grade teachers.
Please donate $295 to the Annual Richmond
Foundation Parent
Pledge Drive now.

And yes, our students learned Biology that day with the help of chickens.

RICHMOND'S EXCELLENCE DEPENDS ON YOU!

- You send your children to Richmond to give them an above average education... this requires an above average participation.
- Richmond has smaller class sizes and lower student: teacher ratio than other schools because you fund an extra teacher every year.
- Every year, Richmond Foundation asks all families to give the equivalent of one's month's K tuition. We all paid this every month in kindergarten...we can do it just once this spring too.
- We need every family to donate $295 to reach our goal to fund one teacher. Any size gift, big or small!
- This year, if we do not reach this goal, our 4th and 5th grade will have to combine.
- For ongoing and in-depth information about the Richmond School Foundation's efforts, please read the shinbun every week at www.richmondjmp.org/newsletters.html, keep your eyes out for listserve mailings, and talk with Richmond Foundation representatives.

The entire staff supports this effort!

Our 4th grade Japanese teacher Ando Sensei says: "Mixed grades will have a severe impact on our students' academic growth next year."

Please give one month of K tuition ($295.00).

Participation from every family matters!

Together we can do it!

Photography exhibit by M. Nakamura, Richmond parent, on display at the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center May 9– Aug. 31

To honor and pay tribute to Oregon Nisei Veterans, Motoya Nakamura, a photographer for The Oregonian, created five special portraits of 442nd RCT veterans John Murakami, Roy Maeda, Joe Onchi, Art Iwasaki, and Kazuo Fujii for the article "Fighting Prejudice on Two Fronts" (Living, Sunday, November 7, 2004). Please join us for an exhibition of these important and artistic photographs. Motoya's vision and masterful technique created memorable works of art that honor and pay respect to these, and all, of Oregon's Nisei veterans. Accompanying the exhibit will be special artifacts from the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center collection.

The 442nd Regimental Combat Team of the U.S. Army served with distinction during World War Two. A Japanese American unit, the 442nd RCT was the most heavily decorated unit for its size and length of service in U.S. military history. Soldiers enlisted or were drafted, many from internment camps, and served their country with distinction, many fighting in heavy combat in the European theater while their families were incarcerated in the United States. Members of the 442nd were liberators at Dachau concentration camp in Germany. Members of the MIS, the Military Intelligence Service, served in the Pacific theater as translators and interrogators. The Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center is proud to honor and celebrate the contributions and service of all of the Oregon Nisei Veterans who served their country with honor and extraordinary bravery.

"The motto of the 442nd Regimental Combat Team was 'go for broke.' It's a gambling term that means risking everything on one great effort to win big. The soldiers of the 442nd needed to win big. They were Nisei - American-born sons of Japanese immigrants. They fought two wars: the Germans in Europe and the prejudice in America...

"The 442nd Regimental Combat Team was the most decorated unit for its size and length of service, in the entire history of the U.S. Military. The 4,000 men who initially came in April 1943 had to be replaced nearly 3.5 times. In total, about 14,000 men served, ultimately earning 9,486 Purple Hearts, 21 Medals of Honor and an unprecedented eight Presidential Unit Citations."

Photos: John Murakami, Roy Maeda, © Motoya Nakamura/The Oregonian

About the artist: Motoya Nakamura was born in Nagoya, Japan, and came to the United States two decades ago after falling in love with J.D. Salinger's Catcher in the Rye. He saved money by teaching windsurfing ("because I do not have to wear a tie") and enrolled in the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri where he studied documentary photography. He has been working as a newspaper photographer ever since: "Working for newspapers gave me tickets to unknown worlds everyday."

In 2000, Motoya joined the staff at The Oregonian, and lives in Portland with his wife and two sons. The article produced in 2004: "Fighting Prejudice on Two Fronts" published his photographs of Oregon Nisei veterans:

"I, as a new wave of Issei, started this project to document and know the Japanese-American history in the first hand. The complexity of the Japanese-American history during WWII overwhelmed me to the point when I could not take it sometimes but people's courage to face it touched me tremendously at the same time. Most of the Japanese-American WWII veterans belonged to the US Army 442nd Regimental Combat Team that were widely acknowledged to be the US Military's most decorated unit for its size and length of service. I believe that my duty as an Issei photographer is to record and honor their courage in the most difficult time in Japanese-American history for the future generation."
– Motoya Nakamura

Exhibit hours: Tuesday - Saturday 11 am to 3 pm, Sundays noon to 3 pm. Admission is $3 (free for Friends of the Legacy Center).

School Board/District Communication

We still have no word from our school district response letter sent last Friday, May 2. As soon as we receive a response, we will notify you. Thanks for your continued support!

Healthy Meals Committee/Recyclable Cafeteria Trays

With all the events, activities, and district involvement at Richmond, our Healthy Meals Committee has been at a stand still for a few months and we would like to reenergize this committee. Fortunately, Julie Gefroh, first grade parent, has been working with AmeriCorps volunteer, Cassidy Sullivan, to get Richmond involved in a pilot program for recyclable cafeteria trays beginning in the fall. We really appreciate Julie's followthrough and dedication to making Richmond move toward becoming a green school. Thanks Julie and all the members of the Healthy Meals Committee for hanging in there during our lull.

PTA Secretary Position Open/Assistant Treasurer Filled

Our PTA board met on Tuesday night and our faithful, dedicated secretary, Sonciray Bonnell, has decided to run for Vice President. That leaves the position of secretary open. If you are interested in this position, please contact Kristina Kallen at kmk456@comcast.net. Also, first-grade parent Michelle Fusak has offered to run for Assistant Treasurer. Michelle and Mika will be great partners and we are so excited to have her join the team!

Buy Coffee in compostable bags to Support Richmond's Elm Trees

Richmond school's 20 American Dutch Elm trees need to be inoculated every 3 years to resist Dutch Elm Disease which can kill the beautiful trees that shade our school grounds. During inoculations in June of 2007, we used 800 microinjections of a fungicide recommended by foresters to protect our trees. The cost per injection was $3.50 for a total of $2800. For the next round of inoculations in 2010, prices and shipping costs are expected to be slightly higher.

To raise money for the inoculations, Save Our Elms, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, partners with Portland Roasting to sell delicious, freshly roasted coffee to the Richmond community. $4.60 from every bag of regular coffee sold allows us to buy approximately 1.31 microinjectors. (Save Our Elms gets $5.05 from every bag of decaf coffee, too!) The coffee is delicious, environmentally friendly and costs $10/pound for regular and $11/pound for decaf. When you finish your coffee, you can remove the metal tie and put the bag in your compost or bury it in the ground.

If you haven't tried the coffee yet, ground regular coffee is available for purchase in the office. The price is $10 /pound (checks made to Save Our Elms, please.) You can look in the coffee basket on Patsy's counter for the variety you like and either give your money to Patsy or place it in the box marked "Save Our Elms" on the office front wall. I place orders every Thursday morning at 8 AM for whole bean, decaf, and additional ground coffee. For an order, please fill out an order form (some are usually available on the table in front of the office or on Richmond's website) indicating your coffee choice and whole bean or ground preference and attach payment. (Please note decaf coffee costs $11.00 a pound.) Coffee from orders will be available in the office by the next afternoon and it will be held in Patsy's coffee drawer just for you. Patsy can retrieve this for you; she is a great supporter of this program. We accept donations as well.
