Roosevelt High School Dance Policy

Students at Roosevelt High School dances are expected to:

- 1) Show current Roosevelt school ID and ticket at the door – no ID & Ticket, no dance!
All RHS dance guests must have on file a guest pass request and show picture ID & ticket at the door.
- 2) Follow the Portland Public School dress code, as defined on pages 6-7 in the PPS Student Rights and Responsibilities Handbook (link below). Students who don't follow the dress code may be asked to change or could be removed from the dance.
- 3) Behave appropriately: All students will not dance with or touch others without their consent. They will treat everyone with respect. If an attendee is found to be behaving inappropriately, their parent/guardian will be called and they will be removed from the dance.
- 4) Not be under the influence or in possession of drugs and alcohol: If you are suspected to be under the influence or in possession, you will be removed from the dance. Parent/Guardian will be called and expected to pick up their student.

*All coats, bags, jackets, purses, hats and other personal items must be turned into coat check before you enter the dance. All items are subject to search upon entry. You will not be allowed to re-enter the dance after you have left the dance facility.

Signing below acknowledges the reading and understanding of these expectations and consequences.
