

Emerging Themes from Engagement

Creating Welcoming & Accessible Spaces that Inspire Joy & Excitement

Investing in Athletic Programs & Creating Appropriate Spaces (Gym, Dance Studio, Fields, etc.)

Lack of Trust in the Application of Community Voices in the Process & Outcome of the Project

Honoring Cultural Histories & Acknowledging Racial & Economic Injustices

Creating Dedicated Spaces for Teachers & Mentors to Personalize & Engage with Students

Not Enough Information about Possible Outcomes for People to Give Informed Opinions

Investing in Programs that Support Professional Goals (Culinary Arts, Media, Sustainability, etc.)

Hiring More BIPOC Teachers to Reflect Experiences and Cultures of Communities

Fears Around Losing Access to Cultural Hub with Ongoing Displacement & Gentrification

Addressing Displacement, Housing & Economic Insecurity

Investing In Physical and Mental Health & Safety for JHS Occupants During & After the Design Process

Questions Around Impacts of Project on Current & Future Student Enrollment