Beatty, Patricia

Jayhawker

Elija ``Lije" Tulley eagerly joins the band of men recruited by abolitionist John Brown to be Jayhawkers, Kansans who cross into neighboring Missouri to steal away slaves and help them to freedom. The historical figures who populate the story are well portrayed as flesh-and-blood characters, not just names out of a history book. There is one glaring error in the text; Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation of 1863 did not free all slaves in the United States, as the story says, but only those in states in rebellion against the Union.
