

Graduation Countdown – Class of 2019

Revised 5-24-19

Following are some graduation related reminders:

Important: May 1st will be the deadline for completing all off-campus credits (such as independent study, Health, etc.). If you are taking an off campus class (for example, through BYU or PSU), make sure to SCHEDULE YOUR FINAL TESTING TIME WITH YOUR CHOSEN PROCTOR. Call your counselor with any questions.

1. Remember the 60-Day Rule started Monday, April 1st. Seniors are encouraged to avoid any actions that could bring disciplinary consequences and result in disqualification from participation in graduation.
2. Senior Finals are May 30-31 in your regular class schedule. Important: May 31 is the LAST day to complete all work for credit.
3. Teachers report Senior Failures to Counselors by Fri, May 31 at 3:30pm; parents will be notified (if they're not aware) if a student will NOT graduate with the class. Some students are close, others need every class plus off-campus credits to graduate. This is THE STUDENTS' responsibility.
4. Once a senior has cleared the check-out process (below) May 30-31, take signed check-out sheet to the table in the main hall on May 30-31 from noon – 3:30pm to pick up tickets for graduation.
5. Tickets: Each student can receive 10 tickets to graduation. Obtain additional tickets from friends who may not need all of their tickets or notify Sharon Dailey, counseling secretary, in advance, of your need for additional tickets. Tickets are available after you complete Senior Check-Out (below).
6. After Senior Finals on May 31, there will be a MANDATORY Senior class meeting in the Auditorium at 3:20pm.

PICK UP YOUR CORDS/PINS PRIOR TO SENIOR AWARDS ASSEMBLY

1. Cords and pins will be handed out May 30-31 in the Main Hall across from the office from noon-3:30pm
2. Wear your caps, cords and pins to the Senior Awards Assembly on Monday, June 3rd and graduation.
3. These cords/pins include: Academic Letters and pins; NHS cords and pins; CTE/Health Occ. cords; PCC Dual Credit Honor cords; etc.

Senior Awards Assembly and Slide Show (Monday, June 3rd)

1. Seniors need to be in the gym with cap and cords/pins on by 9:00am
2. Event will be held in the Gym 9:30 am – 10:45 am
3. Entire school to attend
4. Parents/Guardians and guests are welcome to attend
5. When you arrive in the gym that morning, you will be given a wristband for admittance to the Senior BBQ. The BBQ will follow the awards assembly

Graduation Countdown – Class of 2019

Revised 5-24-19

Following are some graduation related reminders:

Important: May 1st will be the deadline for completing all off-campus credits (such as independent study, Health, etc.). If you are taking an off campus class (for example, through BYU or PSU), make sure to SCHEDULE YOUR FINAL TESTING TIME WITH YOUR CHOSEN PROCTOR. Call your counselor with any questions.

1. Remember the 60-Day Rule started Monday, April 1st. Seniors are encouraged to avoid any actions that could bring disciplinary consequences and result in disqualification from participation in graduation.
2. Senior Finals are May 30-31 in your regular class schedule. Important: May 31 is the LAST day to complete all work for credit.
3. Teachers report Senior Failures to Counselors by Fri, May 31 at 3:30pm; parents will be notified (if they're not aware) if a student will NOT graduate with the class. Some students are close, others need every class plus off-campus credits to graduate. This is THE STUDENTS' responsibility.
4. Once a senior has cleared the check-out process (below) May 30-31, take signed check-out sheet to the table in the main hall on May 30-31 from noon – 3:30pm to pick up tickets for graduation.
5. Tickets: Each student can receive 10 tickets to graduation. Obtain additional tickets from friends who may not need all of their tickets or notify Sharon Dailey, counseling secretary, in advance, of your need for additional tickets. Tickets are available after you complete Senior Check-Out (below).
6. After Senior Finals on May 31, there will be a MANDATORY Senior class meeting in the Auditorium at 3:20pm.

PICK UP YOUR CORDS/PINS PRIOR TO SENIOR AWARDS ASSEMBLY

1. Cords and pins will be handed out May 30-31 in the Main Hall across from the office from noon-3:30pm
2. Wear your caps, cords and pins to the Senior Awards Assembly on Monday, June 3rd and graduation.
3. These cords/pins include: Academic Letters and pins; NHS cords and pins; CTE/Health Occ. cords; PCC Dual Credit Honor cords; etc.

Senior Awards Assembly and Slide Show (Monday, June 3rd)
