2025-26 Arrival and Dismissal Map

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING ON TIME

1

ACADEMIC IMPACT

Arriving late can mean missing important parts of a lesson, which can hinder understanding and learning progress.

2

CLASSROOM DISRUPTION

Late arrivals can disrupt the flow of the class, causing distractions for other students and the teacher.

3

POSITIVE HABITS

Consistently being on time helps develop a habit of punctuality, which is valuable in all aspects of life.

4

MENTAL PREPAREDNESS

Students who arrive on time are more likely to be mentally prepared to start learning and engage actively in class.

5

RESPECTFUL BEHAVIOR

Being punctual demonstrates respect for the teacher and classmates.

6

SELF-ESTEEM BOOST

Arriving on time can contribute to a positive self-image and sense of responsibility.
